

Revlon Selects WPP's Grey and MediaCom as Global Agencies of Record

Jul 20, 2017

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Revlon, Inc. (NYSE:REV) announced today the appointment of Grey as its global creative agency of record and MediaCom as its global media agency of record.

The global portfolio of brands Grey will handle includes two of the company's most iconic and largest, Revlon and Elizabeth Arden, among others. Grey will provide integrated communications services including traditional and digital advertising, promotion and activation marketing. Grey New York, the agency's flagship office, will serve as the global hub. The Company also recently expanded MediaCom's current scope, making the shop the global media agency of record for all planning and paid media buying.

Mr. Fabian Garcia, President & CEO of Revlon, said, "Grey has a long track record and deep expertise in the beauty industry." He continued, "The consolidation and streamlining of our creative and media agency partnerships enables us to achieve greater efficiencies, speed to market and better support the strategic communications goals and long-term growth strategies for our brands globally."
